

Invesco Financials S&P US Select Sector UCITS ETF

This marketing communication is for consumer use in the UK, Ireland and Switzerland only, and for Professional/Institutional/Accredited Investors and Qualified Clients as specified in the Important Information section. It is not for consumer use in other countries. Please do not redistribute. Investors should read the legal documents prior to investing.

This factsheet contains a summary of the Invesco Financials S&P US Select Sector UCITS ETF¹, an exchange traded fund (ETF), and is for discussion purposes only. Please consult the Key Investor Information Document and prospectus and note the additional important information overleaf.²

Investment objective

The Invesco Financials S&P US Select Sector UCITS ETF aims to track the net total return performance of the S&P Select Sector Capped 20% Financials Index, less fees. The Fund is passively managed. The investment concerns the acquisition of units in a fund and not in a given underlying asset.

Key product characteristics

- The synthetic structure of the fund allows an effective replication of the benchmark
- Transparent fees and costs

Risk warnings

For complete information on risks, refer to the legal documents. The value of investments, and any income from them, will fluctuate. This may partly be the result of changes in exchange rates. Investors may not get back the full amount invested. The Fund's ability to track the benchmark's performance is reliant on the counterparties to continuously deliver the performance of the benchmark in line with the swap agreements and would also be affected by any spread between the pricing of the swaps and the pricing of the benchmark. The insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safekeeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, may expose the Fund to financial loss. The Fund might be concentrated in a specific region or sector or be exposed to a limited number of positions, which might result in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund than for a fund that is more diversified. The value of equities and equity-related securities can be affected by a number of factors including the activities and results of the issuer and general and regional economic and market conditions. This may result in fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The fund might purchase securities that are not contained in the reference index and will enter into swap agreements to exchange the performance of those securities for the performance of the reference index.

About the index

The S&P Select Sector Capped 20% Financials Index is a financial index providing exposure to the financial sector of the S&P 500 Index. Constituents are weighted by free float market capitalisation, and capped at a maximum of 19%.

What are ETFs?

ETFs are open-ended UCITS funds. Unlike traditional open-ended funds, ETFs can be bought and sold on a stock exchange like ordinary shares.

How does this ETF achieve its investment objective?

The ETF employs a synthetic replication method; it owns a diversified portfolio of equities that may differ from the benchmark index. To achieve the investment objective, the ETF contracts with one or more banks (each a counterparty), which agree to pay any difference between the portfolio performance and the index performance, less any applicable fees. These contracts are known as swaps. Using swaps ensures accurate index tracking but introduces counterparty risk: if a counterparty failed to pay the index performance due under the swap contract, the ETF would instead rely on the performance of its portfolio of equities, which could be lower than the index performance. An ETF's exposure to a swap counterparty is limited by the UCITS regulation, and further limited by measures that we impose.

Glossary

A-shares Mainland listings of Chinese companies, traded in local currency.

Benchmark An index serving as a reference; a means of comparing securities' valuations.

Beta A measure of how strongly a fund reacts to shifts in its benchmark. A beta of 1 means that the fund price varies, on average, just as much as the benchmark; a beta of more than 1 means that the fund price varies more than the benchmark; a beta of less than 1 means that the fund price varies less.

Bluechip company Bluechips are the shares of large, high-revenue-generating companies. Bluechip shares are traded heavily and generally with low volatility.

Corporate Governance Corporate governance is the legal and practical framework for managing and supervising companies to the benefit of all relevant stakeholders.

Derivative Derivatives are financial instruments whose prices are driven by the price shifts or price expectations of another financial instrument, which is called the "underlying". Many derivatives are designed to react disproportionately to shifts in the price of the underlying. Derivatives can be used for both hedging and speculative purposes. The most common derivatives are certificates, options, futures and swaps.

Energy Master Limited Partnerships (MLP's) Publicly traded entities that are not subject to corporation tax, the structure is designed to encourage private investment in natural resources.

ESG Environmental, Social and Governance, three key factors in measuring sustainability and societal impact of a company.

ETCs Exchange traded commodities, listed debt instruments backed by a commodity.

ETF Exchange traded fund. A type of fund that is traded on the stockmarket like ordinary shares. ETFs can be bought and sold during trading hours, like ordinary shares, whereas other types of funds are priced once a day only.

Factor Investing An investment strategy in which securities are chosen based on certain characteristics and attributes that may explain differences in returns.

Factors Factor investing entails seeking out investment securities on the basis of certain quantitative attributes, called "factors", e.g., securities that have been less volatile in the past.

Foreign exchange forward contracts Currency trading is part of credit establishments' foreign transactions and generally entails the exchange of two different currencies.

Free Float The portion of a company's shares that can be publicly traded.

Hedged Foreign exchange forward contracts are used to hedge asset classes, i.e., to protect them against currency fluctuations. The objective is to achieve a performance that is just as great as the performance of the underlying currency.

Investment grade (high quality) Fixed-income securities with high credit quality (rated at least "BBB" by S&P).

IQS Invesco Quantitative Strategies

Preferred securities A term used in the US for shares that are given precedence over other shares.

Price-book value ratio The price-book value ratio is the ratio between a company's share price and its accounting value, i.e., each shareholder's share of the company's share capital. The lower a company's price-book value, the less "expensive" its shares are.

Substance value Substance value is the combined net value of all a company's assets.

Swap Swaps are derivatives through which cash flows are exchanged for the purpose of managing risks. Two examples are interest-rate and currency swaps.

UCITS An abbreviation for "Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities". In a European legal context, these are investment funds that invest in legally defined types of securities and other financial instruments (securities funds).

Glossary

MSCI ESG Fund Rating: Designed to measure the ESG risks and opportunities of a fund's underlying holdings, making it possible to rank or screen mutual funds and ETFs and on a AAA to CCC ratings scale. This rating aims to provide fund level transparency and measure the ESG characteristics of the total portfolio. It is calculated as a direct mapping of MSCI ESG Quality Scores to letter rating categories. ESG Leaders are companies with an ESG rating of AAA or AA (best in class), and ESG Laggards are companies with an ESG rating of B or CCC.

MSCI ESG Quality Score: Calculated as the weighted average of the underlying holding's ESG Scores. It is provided on a 0-10 scale, with 0 and 10 being the respective lowest and highest possible scores. MSCI scores underlying holdings according to their exposure to 20 industry specific material ESG risks and their ability to manage those risks relative to peers. These issuer-level ESG scores correspond to an issuer-level ESG rating. The scores are based on industry-adjusted company ratings from MSCI.

ESG % Coverage: The percentage of the fund and benchmark where MSCI ESG Research is available.

CO₂ Scope 1 Emission: A company's Scope 1 direct emissions (tCO₂e) from operations. The direct emissions data represents the final, MSCI reviewed and approved value based on the MSCI methodology, which selects the accurate value from available sources.

CO₂ Scope 2 Emission: A company's Scope 2 energy indirect emissions (tCO₂e) from operations. The energy indirect emissions data represents the final, MSCI reviewed and approved value based on the MSCI methodology, which selects the accurate value from available sources.

Total Carbon Intensity: Measures the fund or index's overall carbon intensity and carbon efficiency associated with its holdings, based on carbon expertise and research provided by MSCI. It uses the carbon intensity metrics at the company level (Scope 1 + Scope 2) per USUSD1 million of revenue. For government bonds, it uses total country carbon emissions per USUSD1 million GDP.

Wtd Avg (Weighted Average) Carbon Intensity: The underlying funds' exposure to carbon intensive holdings, calculated as the weighted average of the constituent's intensity metrics: Scope 1 + 2 Emissions per USD 1M revenue for corporates and total country carbon emissions per USD 1M GDP for government bonds.

Board Independence: Weighted average percentage of board members that meet the MSCI criteria for independence.

Female Directors: Weighted average percentage of female board members.

SFDR: Part of the EU's Sustainable Finance Action Plan, the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR, also known as Disclosure Regulation) aims to promote transparency on sustainability by ensuring that participants in the financial services sector provide consistent information to clients in relation to the sustainability of the products and services they provide. The supplement of the fund and the management company website contain further information on compliance with SFDR.

Article 6: The requirement under SFDR to describe the manner in which sustainability risks are integrated into investment decisions, or to provide an explanation of reasons why sustainability risks are deemed not to be relevant.

Article 8 Fund: A fund that, in accordance with the criteria outlined in Article 8 of SFDR, promotes, among other characteristics, environmental or social characteristics, or a combination of those characteristics and provided that the companies that the fund invests in follow good governance practices.

Article 9 Fund: A fund that, in accordance with the criteria outlined in Article 9 of SFDR has sustainable investment as its objective.
