

Invesco S&P China A MidCap 500 Swap UCITS ETF

Supplement to the Prospectus

This Supplement contains information in relation to the Invesco S&P China A MidCap 500 Swap UCITS ETF (the "Fund"), a Fund of Invesco Markets plc (the "Company") an umbrella type open-ended investment company with variable capital, governed by the laws of Ireland and authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland (the "Central Bank") of PO Box 559, New Wapping Street, North Wall Quay Dublin 1, Ireland.

This Supplement forms part of, may not be distributed unless accompanied by (other than to prior recipients of the Prospectus of the Company dated 30 November 2022, as may be amended, supplemented or modified from time to time, (the "Prospectus")), and must be read in conjunction with, the Prospectus.

THIS DOCUMENT IS IMPORTANT. YOU SHOULD NOT PURCHASE SHARES IN THE FUND DESCRIBED IN THIS SUPPLEMENT UNLESS YOU HAVE ENSURED THAT YOU FULLY UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF SUCH AN INVESTMENT AND THE RISKS INVOLVED AND ARE SATISFIED THAT THE INVESTMENT IS SUITED TO YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES AND OBJECTIVES, THE RISKS INVOLVED AND YOUR OWN PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. IF YOU ARE IN ANY DOUBT ABOUT THE CONTENTS OF THIS SUPPLEMENT YOU SHOULD TAKE ADVICE FROM AN APPROPRIATELY QUALIFIED ADVISOR.

Capitalised terms used in this Supplement will have the meanings given to them in the Definitions section below or in the Prospectus.

Invesco Markets plc

An umbrella fund with segregated liability between the sub-funds

Dated 30 November 2022

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Suitability of Investment

You should inform yourself as to (a) the possible tax consequences, (b) the legal and regulatory requirements, (c) any foreign exchange restrictions or exchange control requirements and (d) any other requisite governmental or other consents or formalities which you might encounter under the laws of the country of your citizenship, residence or domicile and which might be relevant to your purchase, holding or disposal of the Shares.

The Shares are not principal protected. The value of the Shares may go up or down and you may not get back the amount you have invested. See the section headed "Risk Factors" of the Prospectus and the section headed "Other Information – Risk Factors" of this Supplement for a discussion of certain risks that should be considered by you.

In addition to investing in transferable securities, it is the intention of the Company to invest on behalf of the Fund principally in financial derivative instruments ("FDIs") for investment and efficient portfolio management purposes (as detailed below under "Use of Derivative Contracts") where applicable.

The Fund's Shares purchased on the secondary market cannot usually be sold directly back to the Fund. Investors must buy and sell Shares on a secondary market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) and may incur fees for doing so. In addition, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units/shares and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

Certain risks attached to investments in FDIs are set out in the Prospectus under "Risk Factors". The Directors of the Company expect that the Net Asset Value of the Fund will have medium volatility through investments in the FDIs.

An investment in the Shares is only suitable for you if you (either alone or with the help of an appropriate financial or other advisor) are able to assess the merits and risks of such an investment and have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses that may result from such an investment. The contents of this document are not intended to contain and should not be regarded as containing advice relating to legal, taxation, investment or any other matters.

Profile of a typical investor

A typical investor would be one who is a private or professional investor and is seeking capital appreciation over the long term. Such an investor is also one that is able to assess the merits and risks of an investment in the Shares.

Responsibility

The Directors (whose names appear under the heading "Directors of the Company" of the Prospectus) accept responsibility for the information contained in the Prospectus and this Supplement. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Supplement when read together with the Prospectus (as complemented, modified or supplemented by this Supplement) is in accordance with the facts as at the date of this Supplement and does not omit anything likely to affect the importance of such information.

General

This Supplement sets out information in relation to the Shares and the Fund. You must also refer to the Prospectus which is separate to this document and describes the Company and provides general information about offers of shares in the Company. You should not take any action in respect of the Shares unless you have received a copy of the Prospectus. Should there be any inconsistency between the contents of the Prospectus and this Supplement, the contents of this Supplement will, to the extent of any such inconsistency, prevail. This Supplement and the Prospectus should both be carefully read in their entirety before any investment decision with respect to Shares is made.

As of the date of this Supplement, the Company does not have any loan capital (including term loans) outstanding or created but unissued and no outstanding mortgages, charges or other borrowings or indebtedness in the nature of borrowings, including bank overdrafts and liabilities under acceptances or acceptance credits, hire purchase or finance lease commitments, guarantees or other contingent liabilities.

Distribution of this Supplement and Selling Restrictions

Distribution of this Supplement is not authorised unless accompanied by a copy of the Prospectus and the latest annual report and audited accounts of the Company and the Fund (other than to prior recipients of the Prospectus) and if published after such report, a copy of the then latest semi-annual report and unaudited accounts. The distribution of this Supplement and the offering or purchase of the Shares may be restricted in certain jurisdictions. If you receive a copy of this Supplement and/or the Prospectus you may not treat such document(s) as constituting an offer, invitation or solicitation to you to subscribe for any Shares unless, in the relevant jurisdiction, such an offer, invitation or solicitation could lawfully be made to you without compliance with any registration or other legal requirement other than those with which the Company has already complied. If you wish to apply for the opportunity to purchase any Shares, it is your duty to inform yourself of, and to observe, all applicable laws and regulations of any relevant jurisdiction. In particular, you should inform yourself as to the legal requirements of so applying, and any applicable exchange control regulations and taxes in the countries of your respective citizenship, residence or domicile.

Definitions

Words and expressions defined in the Prospectus will, unless otherwise defined in this Supplement, have the same meaning when used in this Supplement.

TERMS OF THE SHARES REPRESENTING INTERESTS IN THE FUND

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve the net total return performance of the S&P China A MidCap 500 Index (the "Reference Index") (less fees, expenses and transaction costs).

Further information on the components and selection criteria of the Reference Index is set out below under "General Description of the Reference Index".

Investment Policy

In order to achieve the investment objective, the Company will on behalf of the Fund invest all or substantially all of the net proceeds of any issue of Shares in:

- (i) a basket of global equity securities and equity related securities (the "Basket") whereby the Fund, in exchange for the performance/return of the Basket with an Approved Counterparty, will receive the return of the unhedged Reference Index or a version of the Reference Index which is denominated in a currency other than USD and hedged, (the "Hedged Currency Version"), through unfunded Swaps, being an agreement between the Fund and the Approved Counterparty to exchange one stream of cash flows against another stream pursuant to a master agreement in accordance with the requirements of the International Swaps and Derivatives Association. The purpose of the Hedged Currency Version is to limit, at a Share Class level, the profit or loss generated from foreign exchange exposure when holding a USD denominated asset in a currency other than USD. This is achieved by the Hedged Currency Version employing one month rolling forward FX contracts. The Fund will enter into unfunded Swaps receiving the performance of the Reference Index for unhedged classes of

Shares and will enter into unfunded Swaps receiving the performance of the Hedged Currency Version for Shares whose currency is different to the currency of the Reference Index; or

- (ii) global equities and equity related securities (which may include common stock and preferred stock) where such instruments will provide the performance of the Reference Index. The Fund will invest directly in these global equities and equity related securities as opposed to entering into a Swap as detailed at (i) above. The global equities and equity related securities may include both constituents of the Reference Index and constituents not included in the Reference Index and shall be listed and/or traded on the exchanges and markets set out in Appendix 1 of the Prospectus. Consequently, the prime criterion for selecting the individual equity and equity related securities is not their perceived attractiveness or potential growth or value but rather their suitability in terms of attaining the investment objective of delivering the performance of the Reference Index. In addition, where Shares are offered and their currency is different to the currency of the global equities and equity related securities, the Fund may employ rolling forward FX contracts to limit the profit or loss generated from foreign exchange exposure when holding a USD denominated asset in a currency other than USD.

The current intention of the Fund is to gain exposure to the Reference Index via an unfunded Swap as detailed at (i). However, the Fund may, having due regard to the best interests of Shareholders, decide from time to time to switch partially or totally between the above described policies at (i) and (ii), and shall inform the Shareholders in advance of any such switch and the Supplement shall be updated accordingly.

The Swaps, the Basket, global equities and equity related securities and ancillary cash held by the Fund shall constitute the "Fund Assets" for the purposes of the Prospectus.

Each Approved Counterparty to the Swaps and the Company on behalf of the Fund have entered into a master agreement (including any supporting agreements) and will enter into confirmations for each Swap transaction. Such confirmations may be entered into before or after the relevant transaction and may be in electronic form.

The Fund will not be leveraged for investment or efficient portfolio management purposes and will therefore not be subject to any shortfall risk. Any financial obligation arising in respect of the use of the financial derivative instruments shall never exceed the available capital in the Fund.

The EUR Hdg Acc, EUR Hdg Dist, GBP Hdg Acc, GBP Hdg Dist, CHF Hdg Acc, CHF Hdg Dist, MXN Hdg Acc and MXN Hdg Dist share classes intend to hedge currency risk either by employing Swaps in respect of the Hedged Currency Version or by employing rolling forward FX contracts (as per paragraphs (i) and (ii) respectively of the Investment Policy section above). In both cases, the aim of the currency hedge is to limit the FX exposure of the Class of Shares which is not denominated in the currency of the Reference Index. Such hedging does not, under normal market conditions, generate additional global exposure under the commitment approach when calculating global exposure of the Fund.

Further information relevant to the Fund's investment policy is contained in the main part of the Prospectus under "Investment Objectives and Policies" and under "Investment Restrictions".

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities outlined in Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment.

Index Tracking Strategy

The Manager aims to keep the "Tracking Error" of the Fund (being the standard deviation of the difference in returns between the Fund and the Reference Index) below or equal to 4% under normal market conditions. However, exceptional circumstances may arise which cause the Fund's Tracking Error to exceed 6%.

As detailed in the Investment Policy, it is the Investment Manager's expectation that the Fund will replicate the returns of the Reference Index through the use of unfunded Swaps. As these swaps are directly linked to the returns of the Reference Index, the Tracking Error between the fund and the Reference Index would normally be expected to be significantly lower than the levels indicated above – usually less than 1.0%. However, it is currently expected that the Fund may be in receipt of positive returns in excess of the Reference Index from its swap counterparties. The application of these positive returns, which will vary over time, creates a divergence between the performance Fund and that of the Reference Index. This positive divergence results in a higher measured level of tracking error.

The reason the Investment Manager expects the swaps to deliver positive excess returns is as a result of structural characteristics of the Chinese stock market. Specifically, the underlying constituent securities of the Reference Index are Chinese A-shares and, in general, securities lending is not allowed on these stocks. As a consequence, investors looking to gain short exposure to the stocks in the Reference Index frequently do so via the market for unfunded swaps. The positive excess return on the unfunded swaps received by the Fund is a reflection of the implied securities lending value of the underlying constituents of the Reference Index. As market conventions can change, there can be no guarantee that the Investment Manager will continue to receive positive returns in excess of the Reference Index from its swap counterparties. In the event of such a change, the supplement will be updated accordingly.

The annual report for the Company will provide an explanation of any divergence between the anticipated and realised Tracking Error for the relevant period and the Investment Manager will closely monitor the performance and the actual tracking error on an ongoing basis to ensure that the level of Tracking Error disclosed in the Supplement remains relevant.

Use of Derivative Contracts

Swaps

As per the investment policy, the Fund may enter into Swaps to receive the net total return performance of the Reference Index. For the avoidance of doubt, the Approved Counterparty may, where necessary, provide appropriate Collateral to the Company, on behalf of the relevant Fund, in accordance with the Investment Restrictions so that the Company's risk exposure to the Approved Counterparty is reduced to the extent required by the Central Bank.

In order to reduce the tracking difference and/or improve the performance of the Fund, the return on the index provided for the purposes of calculating the Swap may reflect a lower rate of withholding tax than ordinarily applied within the Reference Index.

The Swaps may be terminated by either party at any time at their fair value or on the occurrence of certain events with respect to either the Fund or the Approved Counterparty including, but not limited to, an event of default (such as a failure to pay, breach of agreement or bankruptcy) or a termination event (which is not due to the fault of either party, for example, illegality or a tax event).

If the Swaps are terminated, due to an event of default or termination event, a close-out amount will be determined with respect to the Swaps. An amount equal to the relevant close-out amount (calculated in accordance with the terms of the Swaps) or such other amount as agreed between the parties will be settled between the Approved Counterparty and the Fund. The Swaps will at all times be valued in accordance with the provisions of the Prospectus. The Fund may then enter into new Swaps unless the Directors resolve that it is inadvisable to enter into new Derivative Contracts, or to invest directly in the underlying securities of the Reference Index or, if the Directors determine that there is no reasonable way to achieve the net total return performance of the Reference Index, the Fund may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of the Prospectus.

The Swaps are unfunded payments and are linked to the return on the Basket. The Swap provides the difference between the payments received for the Basket and the performance of the Reference Index or the Hedged Currency Version, as the case may be.

The Fund may enter into separate Swaps agreements for different Classes of Shares. Each Swap will provide the relevant Class of Shares with exposure to either the Reference Index or to the Hedged Currency Version.

Accordingly, the performance of the corresponding equity basket is accounted for at the level of the relevant Class of Shares.

The Company on behalf of the Fund has filed with the Central Bank its risk management policy which enables it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with the use of Financial Derivative Instruments. The Company will, on request, provide supplementary information to Shareholders relating to the risk management methods employed, including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments.

The Company will use the commitment approach for the purposes of calculating global exposure for the Fund. The total exposure of a Class of Shares to the Reference Index or a Hedged Currency Version, as the case may be, will be limited to 100% of Net Asset Value. The Fund does not have any additional incremental exposure or leveraged exposure to the Reference Index or Hedged Currency Version therefore the global exposure of the Fund is, under normal market conditions, 0% (i.e. the total exposure of the Fund to the Reference Index or Hedged Currency Version will under normal market conditions be limited to 100% of Net Asset Value).

Investment Restrictions

Investors in particular must note that the general investment restrictions set out under "Investment Restrictions" in the Prospectus apply to the Fund.

The Fund shall not invest more than 10% of its net assets in other UCITS or other open or closed ended CIS.

Efficient Portfolio Management

Further information on efficient portfolio management is contained in the main body of the Prospectus under the heading "Use of Financial Derivative Instruments and Efficient Portfolio Management".

Collateral Policy

Further information on the collateral policy is contained in the main body of the Prospectus under the heading "Collateral Policy".

The Fund may post or receive collateral in accordance with the Company's collateral policy.

Consequences of Disruption Events

Upon the occurrence of a Disruption Event (and without limitation to the Directors' personal powers as further described in the Prospectus) an Approved Counterparty may make adjustments to determine the value of the relevant Swaps and the Net Asset Value may be affected by such adjustment; and/or the Directors may (i) temporarily suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value and any subscription, repurchase and exchange of Shares in accordance with the provisions of the Prospectus under the section "Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value"; and/or (ii) the Directors may, in certain circumstances as set out in the Prospectus, terminate the Fund.

Limited Recourse

A Shareholder will solely be entitled to look to the assets of the Fund in respect of all payments in respect of its Shares. If the realised net assets of the Fund are insufficient to pay any amounts payable in respect of the Shares, the Shareholder will have no further right of payment in respect of such Shares nor any claim against or recourse to any of the assets of any other Fund or any other asset of the Company.

Leverage

The Fund does not use leverage in its investments methods or contain any leveraged instrument. As stated under "General Description of the Reference Index", the Reference Index, being the S&P China A MidCap 500, is an unleveraged index. The Hedged Currency Version employs a hedging methodology which may result in leverage being generated on an intra-month basis. In the event that there is a gain on the foreign currency hedge of a Hedged Currency Version, no leverage will result from such gain but where there is a loss from such hedge, leverage will result from such loss. The Manager expects that, under normal market conditions, the level of leverage generated in the Hedged Currency Versions will be minimal. Notwithstanding this, the Fund is unleveraged as any leverage from the hedging methodology will be removed when the Hedged Currency Version is rebalanced each month.

Borrowings

In accordance with the general provisions set out in the Prospectus under the heading "Borrowing and Lending Powers", the Company on behalf of the Fund may borrow up to 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund on a temporary basis. Such borrowings may only be used for short term liquidity purposes to cover the redemption of Shares.

Dividend Policy

There are no dividend entitlements for the Class Acc Shares, Class EUR Hdg Acc Shares, Class GBP Hdg Acc Shares, Class CHF Hdg Acc Shares, or Class MXN Hdg Acc Shares.

With respect to Class Dist Shares, Class EUR Hdg Dist Shares, Class GBP Hdg Dist Shares, Class CHF Hdg Dist Shares and Class MXN Hdg Dist Shares only and at the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Fund aims to pay quarterly dividends usually on or around 20 March, 20 June, 20 September and 20 December calculated by reference to the embedded reinvested dividends within the Reference Index during the relevant dividend period less taxes or other withholding. The Reference Index seeks to track the price performance of the companies contained within the Reference Index and distributions made by those companies. There is no guarantee that any dividend will be paid. It should be noted that the payment of any dividend will be calculated in a manner such that the declared dividend will never be more than the excess performance of the total return performance of the Fund as calculated by reference to the price return performance of the Reference Index, over the relevant calculation period.

The Company will declare dividends in accordance with the terms of the Prospectus. Only investors who purchase Shares prior to the date on which the relevant dividend is declared by the Board of Directors and remain in the Fund until the date on which the Board of Directors pay the relevant dividend, will receive the declared dividend, otherwise they are not entitled to such dividend. Details relating to the declaration and payment of dividends shall be set out on the Website. One of the economic consequences of the payment of a dividend (if any) is that the Net Asset Value of the Class Dist Shares, Class EUR Hdg Dist Shares, Class GBP Hdg Dist Shares, Class CHF Hdg Dist Shares, and Class MXN Hdg Dist Shares will be reduced accordingly.

Trading

Application has been made to Euronext Dublin or Deutsche Boerse and/or such other exchanges as the Directors may determine from time to time (the "Relevant Stock Exchanges") for listing and/or admission to trading of the Shares issued and available to be issued on the main market of each of the Relevant Stock Exchanges on or about the Launch Date. This Supplement and the Prospectus together comprise listing particulars for the purposes of trading on the main market of each of the Relevant Stock Exchanges.

Exchange Traded Fund

The Fund is an Exchange Traded Fund ("ETF"). The Shares of this Fund are fully transferable among investors and will be listed and/or traded on the Relevant Stock Exchanges. It is envisaged that Shares will be bought and sold by private and professional investors in the secondary market in the same way as the ordinary shares of a listed trading company.

"MXN Hdg Dist"	Up to 0.35% per annum or such lower amount as may be advised to Shareholders from time to time.

The Management Fee, a percentage of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Class of Shares (plus VAT, if any), is payable by the Company out of the Fund Assets to the Manager. The Management Fee will accrue on each day and will be calculated on each Dealing Day and paid monthly in arrears. The Manager will pay out of its fees (and not out of the assets of the Fund) the fees and expenses (where appropriate) of the Investment Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary, the Directors and the ordinary fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Fund that include Setting Up Costs and Other Administrative Expenses as described in the Prospectus. To assist with meeting some of the Fund's costs (including fees of the Investment Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary and the index licence costs) the Manager may request a fees contribution from the Approved Counterparties (further details are available on request). Investors should note that, due to the costs involved in providing the hedged exposure, it may not be possible to achieve the same dividend rates across each Share Class.

This section headed "Fees and Expenses" should be read in conjunction with the section headed "Fees and Expenses" in the Prospectus.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE REFERENCE INDEX

The Reference Index is designed to measure the performance of the mid-cap segment of the China A-Shares market. It comprises the 500 largest stocks by total market capitalisation in the S&P China A 1800 Index, after excluding stocks in the S&P China A 300 Index.

The Reference Index is further described below but only represents an extract of information available from public sources and neither the Directors, the Manager, S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC or such other successor sponsor to the Reference Index (the "Index Provider") nor the Investment Manager take any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information.

Index Universe

The eligible universe for the Reference Index is defined as all constituents of the S&P China A 1800 Index (the "Parent Index") which, as of the rebalancing reference date:

- (i) excludes any constituent of the S&P China A 300 Index; and
- (ii) includes stocks ranked in the top 85% of the Parent Index by a six-month Median Daily Value Traded ("MDVT") or the top 90% of a six-month MDVT for current constituents of the Reference Index.

Constituent Selection

At each rebalancing date, stocks from the eligible universe are ranked in descending order by total market capitalisation and the top 500 stocks are selected for inclusion in the Reference Index subject to a 50% buffer as described below:

1. All eligible stocks ranked within the top 50% of the target stock count (500) are selected as constituents of the Reference Index.
2. Current constituents of the Reference Index that are within the top 150% of the target stock count and which have not already been selected are added to the Reference Index, in rank order, until the target stock count is reached.
3. If the target stock count is still not reached pursuant to the above, the non-current constituents of the Reference Index which have not already been selected are then added to the Reference Index in rank order until the target stock count is reached.

Further information on capitalised terms used above and not defined herein can be found in the methodology for the Reference Index or on the Index Provider's website.

Exposure to the Reference Index will give an indirect exposure to the individual securities comprising the Reference Index of up to 20% of its Net Asset Value, which limit may be raised to 35% for a single security in exceptional market circumstances, including (but not limited to) circumstances in which the issuer of such security occupies a dominant market position.

Index Rebalancing and Weighting

The Reference Index rebalances semi-annually, effective after the close of trading on the third Friday of June and December. The rebalancing reference dates are the third Friday of May and November, respectively.

The index is weighted by free float-adjusted market capitalisation.

For further information on the Index Provider's weighting methodology in China indices, please see the S&P Dow Jones China Indices Methodology on the Index Provider's website.

The Fund will bear the costs of any rebalancing trades (i.e. the costs of buying and selling securities of the Reference Index and associated taxes and transaction costs).

OTHER INFORMATION

Risk Factors

Certain risks relating to the Shares are set out under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus. In addition, Shareholders must also note that:

- (a) Country Concentration Risk: The Fund may be invested in a single country or small number of countries. A geographically concentrated investment strategy may be subject to a greater degree of volatility and of risk than one that is geographically diversified. The Fund's Investments will become more susceptible to fluctuations in value resulting from economic or business conditions in the country where the Fund is invested. As a consequence, the aggregate return of the Fund may be adversely affected by the unfavourable developments in such country.
- (b) Equity risk: The value of equities and equity-related securities can be affected by a number of factors including the activities and results of the issuer, general and regional economies, market conditions and broader economic and political developments. This may result in fluctuations in the value of the Fund.

(c) Chinese Markets Risk

Investing in emerging markets such as the People's Republic of China subjects the Fund to a higher level of market risk than investments in a developed country, as detailed in the "Emerging Market Risk" risk factor below. This is due to, among other things, greater market volatility, lower trading volume, political and economic instability, settlement risk, greater risk of market shut down and more governmental limitations on foreign investment than those typically found in developed markets. Investors should be aware that the Chinese government has adopted a planned economic system and implemented economic reform measures which emphasise decentralisation and the utilisation of market forces in the development of the Chinese economy. Such reforms have resulted in significant economic growth and social progress. Many of the economic reforms in China are unprecedented or experimental and are subject to adjustment and modification, which may not always have a positive effect on investment in the companies in China. The national regulatory and legal framework for capital markets and joint stock companies in China is not well developed when compared with those of developed countries. Under the prevailing tax policy in China, there are certain tax incentives available to foreign investment. There can be no assurance, however, that the aforesaid tax incentives will not be abolished in the future. Investments in China will be sensitive to any significant change in political, social or economic policy in China. Such sensitivity may, for the reasons specified above, adversely affect the capital growth and thus the performance of these investments."

- (d) Emerging Market Risk: Additional risks and special considerations may be encountered with investments in emerging markets. These may include:
 - the risk of nationalisation or ex-appropriation of assets or confiscatory taxation;
 - social, economic and political instability or uncertainty including war;
 - price fluctuations, less liquidity and smaller capitalisation of securities market;
 - currency risks and exchange rate fluctuations;
 - high rates of inflation;
 - controls on foreign investment and limitations on repatriation of invested capital and on the ability to exchange local currencies for US Dollars;

- differences in auditing and financial reporting standards which may result in the unavailability of material information about issuers;
 - business risks, including relating to crime and theft;
 - less extensive regulation of the securities markets;
 - longer settlement periods for securities transactions;
 - less developed corporate laws regarding fiduciary duties of officers and directors and the protection of investors; and
 - where the Fund invests in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Fund which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians, in circumstances where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risk in circumstances whereby the Depositary will have no liability for a loss of a financial instrument by such sub-custodians if it can prove that the loss has arisen as a result of an external event beyond its reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all reasonable efforts to the contrary.
- (e) Liquidity Risk: The Fund's investments may be subject to liquidity constraints, which means they may trade less frequently and in small volumes. Securities of certain types may also be subject to periods of significantly lower liquidity in difficult market conditions. As a result, changes in the value of investments may be more unpredictable. In certain cases, it may not be possible to sell the security at the price at which it has been valued for the purposes of calculating the Net Asset Value of the Fund or at a value considered to be fairest.
- (f) The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of and income from the Shares relating to each Fund can go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount invested. The Fund's exposure is linked to the components performance of the Reference Index and the Hedged Currency Version which are both, in turn, exposed to general market movements (negative as well as positive).
- (g) The return payable under the Swaps with an Approved Counterparty is subject to the credit risk of the Approved Counterparty. In addition, the Approved Counterparty will act as the calculation agent under the Swaps (the "Calculation Agent"). Shareholders should note that not only will they be exposed to the credit risk of the Approved Counterparty but also potential conflicts of interest in the performance of the function of Calculation Agent by the Approved Counterparty. The Approved Counterparty has undertaken to use its reasonable endeavours to resolve any such conflicts of interest fairly (having regard to its respective obligations and duties) and to ensure that the interests of the Company and the Shareholders are not unfairly prejudiced. The Directors believe that the Approved Counterparty is suitable and competent to perform such functions. In addition the valuations provided by the Approved Counterparty in its role as Calculation Agent will be verified at least weekly by a party independent of the Approved Counterparty who shall either be the Administrator or sourced by the Administrator as appropriate and who has been approved for such purpose by the Depositary.
- (h) The sub-funds of the Company are segregated as a matter of Irish law and as such, in Ireland, the assets of one sub-fund will not be available to satisfy the liabilities of another sub-fund. However, it should be noted that the Company is a single legal entity which may operate or have assets held on its behalf or be subject to claims in other jurisdictions which may not necessarily recognise such segregation. There can be no guarantee that the courts of any jurisdiction outside Ireland will respect the limitations on liability as set out above.

- (i) There are Classes of Shares issued in respect of the Fund. Additional Classes of Shares may be created at any time without the consent of the then existing Shareholders in accordance with the Central Bank's requirements. Each Class of Shares issued in respect of the Fund will perform differently as a result of differences in currency and fees (as applicable). The Company on behalf of the Fund will enter into Swaps that are designed to generate the cashflows payable in respect of the Shares of the relevant Classes. There is no legal segregation of assets and liabilities between Classes and there is no separate portfolio of assets held for each Class. Accordingly, if more than one Class of Shares has been issued and there is a shortfall attributable to one Class, this will adversely affect the other Classes of Shares issued in respect of the Fund.
- (j) Classes of Shares denominated in currencies other than USD are exposed to the Hedged Currency Version relating to the currency of denomination. Consequently, returns in respect of a Class denominated in one currency may differ from those in respect of Classes denominated in different currencies. For example, if the Reference Index's value (which is denominated in USD) increases, the amount of increase in the Hedged Currency Version denominated in Euros will depend on the USD / Euro exchange rate; if the USD is relatively weak against the Euro, the increase in the Hedged Currency Version denominated in Euro will be smaller than if the USD is relatively strong against the Euro. In addition, the exchange rates used in determining the Hedged Currency Versions may be less favourable than exchange rates which may be obtained from other sources.
- (k) If a Disruption Event or an Index Disruption and Adjustment Event occurs, the Calculation Agent and the Investment Manager may make such determinations and/or adjustments to determine the net total return performance of the Reference Index (in the case of the Investment Manager) and/or the Swap (in the case of the Calculation Agent). The Net Asset Value may be affected by such adjustment.
- (l) Whilst the Company has the right to use and reference the Reference Index in connection with the Fund in accordance with the terms of the Reference Index licence, in the event that the licence is terminated the Fund will be terminated or if any other Index Disruption and Adjustment Event occurs, adjustments may be made to the terms of the Swaps after negotiation with each Approved Counterparty to account for any such event including adjustment to the Reference Index or the calculation of the Reference Index level which may have a significant impact on the Net Asset Value of the Fund.
- (m) There can be no assurance that the Reference Index will be successful at producing positive returns consistently or at all. The Index Provider makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, that the Reference Index will produce positive returns at any time. Furthermore, it should be noted that the results that may be obtained from investing in any financial product linked to the Reference Index or otherwise participating in any transaction linked to the Reference Index may be significantly different from the results that could theoretically be obtained from a direct investment in the component stocks in respect of the Reference Index.
- (n) Subject to certain pre-defined parameters, it is possible that the methodology used to calculate the Reference Index or the formulae underlying the Reference Index could change and such change may result in a decrease in the performance of the Reference Index. As such, aspects of the Reference Index could change in the future, including, without limitation, the methodology and third party data sources. Any changes may be made without regard to the interests of a holder of any product linked to the Reference Index. Additionally, the Reference Index was created by the Index Provider, who has the right to permanently cancel the Reference Index at any time. Such cancellation may have a material adverse effect on any linked investments or transactions.
- (o) Dividends are subject to assumed tax rates - Any announced dividend in respect of a component stock comprising the Basket will be reduced by an assumed tax rate (which may be zero), which is intended to reflect the withholding tax rate levied, or the potential tax rate that may be levied, by the country of incorporation or residence of the issuer of such component stock. The assumed tax rate will be determined by the Index Calculation Provider based on its view of applicable law and/or regulations, observable sources and/or market practice. The assumed tax rates may be amended from time to time by the Index Calculation Provider. If the assumed tax rate in respect of one or more component stocks is increased then the performance of the Reference Index may be affected.

- (p) Currency exchange risk - Some of the component stocks may be denominated in currencies other than the Reference Index currency. The Reference Index will notionally convert the value of such component stocks into the Reference Index currency at prevailing exchange rates for purposes of determining the value of the Reference Index. The exposure of these component stocks to movements in currency exchange rates will depend on the extent to which such currencies strengthen or weaken against the Reference Index currency and the relative weighting of such component stocks. The Reference Index does not seek to hedge any foreign currency exposure embedded in the component stocks and will not provide any hedge against any such currency exchange risk.
- (q) Inaction by the Common Depositary and/or an International Central Securities Depositary: Investors that settle or clear through an ICSD will not be a registered Shareholder in the Company, they will hold an indirect beneficial interest in such Shares and the rights of such investors, where such person is a Participant in the ICSD, shall be governed by the terms and conditions applicable to the arrangement between such Participant and their ICSD and where the holder of the indirect beneficial interests in the Shares is not a Participant, shall be governed by their arrangement with their respective nominee, broker or Central Securities Depositary (as appropriate) which may be a Participant or have an arrangement with a Participant. The Company will issue any notices and associated documentation to the registered holder of the Shares i.e. the Common Depositary's Nominee, with such notice as is given by the Company in the ordinary course when convening general meetings. The Common Depositary's Nominee has a contractual obligation to relay any such notices received by the Common Depositary's Nominee to the Common Depositary which, in turn, has a contractual obligation to relay any such notices to the applicable ICSD, pursuant to the terms of its appointment by the relevant ICSD. The applicable ICSD will in turn relay notices received from the Common Depositary to its Participants in accordance with its rules and procedures. The Common Depositary is contractually bound to collate all votes received from the applicable ICSDs (which reflects votes received by the applicable ICSD from Participants) and the Common Depositary's Nominee is obligated to vote in accordance with such instructions. The Company has no power to ensure the applicable ICSD or the Common Depositary relays notices of votes in accordance with their instructions. The Company cannot accept voting instructions from any persons other than the Common Depositary's Nominee.
- (r) Payments: With the authorisation and upon the instruction of the Common Depositary's Nominee, any dividends declared and any liquidation and mandatory redemption proceeds are paid by the Company or its authorised agent (for example, the Paying Agent) to the applicable ICSD. Investors, where they are Participants, must look solely to the applicable ICSD for their share of each dividend payment or any liquidation or mandatory redemption proceeds paid by the Company or, where they are not Participants, they must look to their respective nominee, broker or Central Securities Depositary (as appropriate, which may be a Participant or have an arrangement with a Participant of the applicable ICSD) for any share of each dividend payment or any liquidation or mandatory redemption proceeds paid by the Company that relates to their investment. Investors shall have no claim directly against the Company in respect of dividend payments and any liquidation and mandatory redemption proceeds due on Shares represented by the Global Share Certificate and the obligations of the Company will be discharged by payment to the applicable ICSD with the authorisation of the Common Depositary's Nominee.
- (s) Risk of using Derivatives: Investing in a derivative instrument could cause the Fund to lose more than the principal amount invested. Also, suitable derivative transactions may not be available in all circumstances and there can be no assurance that the Fund will engage in these transactions to reduce exposure to other risks when that would be beneficial.

The prices of derivative instruments are highly volatile. Price movements of derivative contracts are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, national and international political and economic events, changes in local laws and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly markets in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations. The use of derivatives also involves certain special risks, including (1) dependence on the ability to predict movements in the prices of securities being hedged and movements in interest rates; (2) imperfect correlation between the hedging instruments and the securities or market sectors being hedged; (3) the fact that skills needed to use these instruments are different from those needed to select the Fund's securities; and (4) the possible absence of a liquid market for any particular instrument at any particular time.

- (f) Counterparty Risk: The Fund may enter into transactions in over-the-counter markets, which will expose the Fund to the credit of its counterparties. The Fund may enter into an OTC transaction, which exposes the Fund to the risk that the counterparty may default on its obligations to perform under the relevant contract. In the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of a counterparty, the Fund could experience delays in liquidating the position and significant losses, including declines in the value of its investment during the period in which the Company seeks to enforce its rights, inability to realise any gains on its investment during such period and fees and expenses incurred in enforcing its rights. There is also a possibility that such OTCs are terminated due, for instance, to bankruptcy, supervening illegality or change in the tax or accounting laws relative to those at the time the agreement was originated. In such circumstances, investors may be unable to recover any losses incurred as such derivative contracts involve credit risk that could result in a loss to the Fund.

In general, there is less government regulation and supervision of transactions in the OTC than of transactions entered into on recognised exchanges. OTC derivatives lack transparency as they are privately negotiated contracts and any information concerning them is usually only available to the contracting parties.

Although the Fund may enter into derivative transactions with one or more counterparties, there is no requirement for the Fund to execute transactions with more than one counterparty and consequently counterparty risk may be concentrated in a single counterparty or a small number of counterparties. Further, there is no agreement between counterparties and the Fund for any counterparty to substitute themselves for a counterparty which defaults under a derivative agreement or to make good any losses which the Fund may incur as a result of a counterparty default.

- (u) Liquidity on secondary market risk: Even though the Shares are to be listed on one or more Relevant Stock Exchanges, there can be no certainty that there will be liquidity in the Shares on any Relevant Stock Exchange or that the market price at which the Shares may be traded on a Relevant Stock Exchange will be the same as or approximately equal to the Net Asset Value per Share. As the Shares may be dealt in by means of subscription and redemption, the Directors consider that large discounts or premiums in the Net Asset Value of the Fund would not be sustainable. There can be no guarantee that once the Shares are listed on a Relevant Stock Exchange they will remain listed or that the conditions of listing will not change.

Trading in Shares on a Relevant Stock Exchange may be halted or suspended due to market conditions or for the reason that, in the Relevant Stock Exchange's view, trading in the Shares is inadvisable, or otherwise pursuant to the Relevant Stock Exchange's rules. If trading on a Relevant Stock Exchange is halted, investors in Shares may not be able to sell their Shares until trading resumes however such investors should be able to apply to the Company to redeem Shares in accordance with the provisions as set out in the Prospectus.

- (v) Value of securities: The value of securities can be affected by daily stock market movements. Other influential factors include political, economic news, company earnings and significant corporate events.

Investors should also refer to the Prospectus for additional disclosure of risks and conflicts of interest.

An English version of a term-sheet summarising the general terms of all derivative contracts, such as swap agreements, are available to investors upon request at the Company's registered office.
