This factsheet contains a summary of the PIMCO Emerging Markets Advantage Local Bond Index Source UCITS ETF (Acc.), an exchange traded fund (ETF), and is for discussion purposes only. Please consult the Key Investor Information Document and prospectus and note the additional important information overleaf.

Investment objective

The PIMCO Emerging Markets Advantage Local Bond Index Source UCITS ETF (Acc.) aims to provide a return that closely corresponds, before fees and expenses, to the PIMCO Emerging Markets Advantage Local Currency Bond Index.

Key advantages

- GDP-weighted index: de-emphasises highly indebted countries
- Transparent: ETF holdings are published daily at etf.invesco.com

Key risks

- No capital protection: you may not get back the amount you invested
- Emerging markets may be more volatile than developed markets
- Changes in interest rates and exchange rates may affect returns
- The ETF may use derivatives: this introduces additional risk, including exposure to derivative counterparties
- Changes in the exchange rate between the base currency and your trading currency may affect returns

About the index

The PIMCO Emerging Markets Advantage Local Currency Bond Index is a financial index providing exposure to local government debt. Countries are weighted by GDP, with a maximum of 15% per country. Where direct investment is difficult, the index uses derivatives (forwards).

Performance

The table shows performance over the past five years to the most recent month end. ETF performance is based on Net Asset Value after management fees and other ETF costs but does not consider any commissions or custody fees payable when buying, holding or selling the ETF. The ETF does not charge entry or exit fees. Each period starts at the end of the indicated month. The first indicated month may not represent a full month and may start only on the launch/restructuring date indicated in this factsheet. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

What are PIMCO Source ETFs?

PIMCO Source ETFs are open-ended UCITS funds. Unlike traditional open-ended funds, ETFs can be bought and sold on a stock exchange like ordinary shares.

How does the ETF achieve its investment objective?

The ETF employs the physical replication method, it invests in a range of securities broadly similar to the constituents of the benchmark index. Securities are selected by the portfolio manager, purchased by PIMCO on behalf of the ETF and held by the Custodian. The net asset value of the ETF directly reflects the value of the assets held in custody.

Important information

Your capital is at risk. You may not get back the amount you invested. By accepting this document, you consent to communicating with us in English, unless you inform us otherwise.

This document is for use in the UK, Ireland and Switzerland only, and for professional investors pursuant to Directive 2004/39/EC (MIFID) Annex II Section I in Denmark, Finland, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Spain, Sweden and Qualified Clients in Israel.

This document is not intended as investment advice or as a recommendation to invest in any particular asset class, security or strategy. The information provided is for illustrative purposes only, and it should not be relied upon as investment advice or as a recommendation to buy or sell securities. Investors should seek independent professional advice prior to investing. Any investment in an ETF should be made on the basis of the relevant Prospectus and Key Investor Information Documents, including consideration of the investment objective, risks, charges and expenses. Further information on the ETFs (including information on their portfolio composition), their Prospectus, Key Investor Information Documents and Supplements are available at eff.invesco.com, or from your financial adviser or broker.

The distribution and the offering of ETFs in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. This document is not for distribution to, or for the attention of, US or Canadian persons.

The products described on eff.invesco.com are not suitable for everyone. Investors' capital is at risk and they may get back less than they invested. Past performance is not a guide to future performance, and investors should not deal in these products unless they understand their nature and the extent of their exposure to risk. The value of these products can go down as well as up and can be subject to volatility due to factors such as price changes in the underlying instrument and interest rates. Tax treatment depends on the individual circumstances of each investor and potential investor, and may be subject to change. Where individuals or the business have expressed opinions, they are based on current market conditions, they may differ from those of other investment professionals and are subject to change without notice.

UCITS ETF's units / shares purchased on the secondary market cannot usually be sold directly back to UCITS ETF. Investors must buy and sell units / shares on a secondary market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) and may incur fees for doing so. In addition, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units / shares and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

In no way should Invesco UK Services Limited or PIMCO Europe Limited be deemed to be holding itself out as a financial adviser or a fiduciary. PIMCO Source ETFs constitute exchange traded funds issued by an Irish domiciled company, PIMCO Fixed Income Source ETFs PLC.
