

Invesco US Treasury Bond 7-10 Year UCITS ETF

Securities lending report as at 29 February 2020

For Professional Investors, Qualified Investors and Qualified Clients only

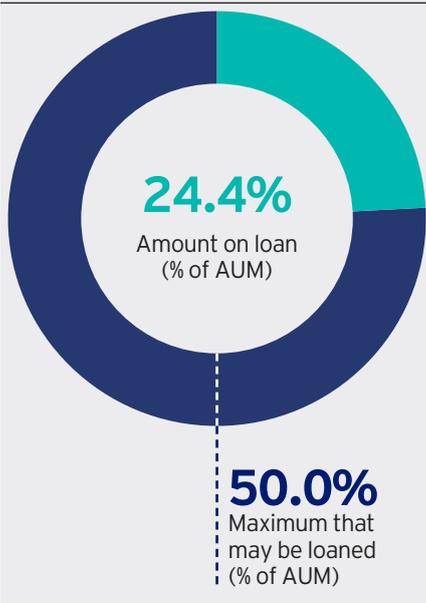

Securities Lending is a well-established and tightly regulated practice involving the short-term transfer (loan) of securities. The objective is to enhance the ETF's overall performance. The following information refers to Securities Lending related to the Invesco US Treasury Bond 7-10 Year UCITS ETF. Data has been provided by the Lending Agent, Bank of New York (BNY) Mellon, unless stated otherwise.

Securities on loan

No more than 50% of the ETF's total assets under management (AUM) will be subject to securities lending. Additionally, no more than 90% of any individual security held by the ETF may be loaned.

Percentage of assets on loan (%)

As at 29 February 2020

Collateral held, as at 29 February 2020

Borrowers must provide suitable collateral of at least the amount specified in the table below, as a percentage of the securities being borrowed. The requirement of collateral greater than the loan is intended to provide the ETF with a cushion in case the collateral falls in value.

Level of collateralisation, as % of the loan value, as at 29 February 2020

109.9%

Collateralisation helps mitigate the risk to the ETF and its investors from the unlikely event of the borrower being unable to return the securities at the end of the loan period. The collateral is held by the Depositary, BNY Mellon Trust Company (Ireland).

Collateral haircuts¹

Securities loaned	Collateral type
	Equities	Government, Supranational and Agency bonds
Equities	105-110%	102-105%
Government bonds	110%	102-105%
Corporate bonds	110%	102-105%

Please note that cash is not currently permitted as collateral.

¹ The Lending Agent may require additional collateral from the borrower in certain circumstances, such as when the collateral and loaned security are in different currencies. For example, a borrower of USD-denominated Treasuries would have to post collateral of 102% of the loan value if using USD-denominated bonds, or 105% of the value if using bonds in another currency. The additional collateral can provide a cushion for the ETF in the event of adverse foreign exchange movements during the loan period.

Risks to consider

Securities lending involves certain risks that an investor should consider, including:

- The risk of the borrower defaulting on its obligation to return the securities at the end of the loan period, and
- The risk of the ETF being unable to sell the collateral provided to it if the borrower defaults.

To mitigate these risks, the ETF benefits from a "borrower default indemnity" provided by the Lending Agent, BNY Mellon. The indemnity allows for full replacement of the securities loaned if the collateral does not cover the value of the securities in the event of a borrower default.

Risk Warnings

The value of investments, and any income from them, will fluctuate. This may partly be the result of changes in exchange rates. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.

Debt instruments are exposed to credit risk which relates to the ability of the borrower to repay the interest and capital on the redemption date.

Changes in interest rates will result in fluctuations in the value of the fund.

The Fund may be exposed to the risk of the borrower defaulting on its obligation to return the securities at the end of the loan period and of being unable to sell the collateral provided to it if the borrower defaults.
